Fatal Results Attending the Efforts of Negroes to Control a School

ricaded. Sunday morning Acting Sheriff Izard persuaded old man Neely and his In Helena only by R. S. Hale & Co. other son to come out, promising them safe Neely did not appear. The sheriff's party was not more than 100 yards distant with the two prisoners when a number of other trying inferior medicines when Beggs' members of the posse raided the Advertiser building. Neely was discovered secreted under the floor, and was riddled with buillets. This last killing created a great deal more excitement, and the people were afraid of a raid on the town by the negroes. The acting sheriff wired Gov. hegroes. The acting should be perfected there. Gov. Eagle thought he could be better able to judge of what was needed by the first the f being on the ground, so he took the first train to Forest City, and is now there and train to Forest City, and is now there and will remain until quiet is restored.

The cause of all the trouble was the determined attempt of the negroes to elect two of their race to memberships in the school board in place of two white candidates. The white people claimed the negroes already had sufficient representation and charged that they were trying to obtain control of the board in order to manage the school to suit themselves. Neely was a prominent republican, a member of Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morrfs,

That is what Mr. Samuel Schaefer, of the banking house of Schaefer Bros., 48 Wall street, did last week, and although he has tried to keep the story from the public, he won't be able to go on the floor of the stock exchange for many a day without hearing of his wonderful bargain. hearing of his wonderful bargain.

Mr. Schafer's house had an order for 125 shares of New York Central stock early in the week, and such a block was among the securities advertised to be sold at the weekly auction of stocks and bonds which takes place on Wednesdays at the real estate exchanges. Odd lots can sometimes be obtained at prices a shade under the market at these sales. Mr. Schafer strolled into the exchange on Wednesday falternoon while the sale was in progress to see if he could pick up these shares. The New York Central shares were pretty far down on the list, and when Mr. Schafer went in Auctioneer Peter F. Meyer was making vain efforts to get a bid for a bunch of "wildcats" which had been found among the property of the late Romaine Dillon, the eccentric millionaire who committed suicide in the Union Square hotel a few months ago. The sale was being made by order of the Union Trust company, the admonths ago. The sale was being made by order of the Union Trust company, the ad-ministrator of the estate. Mr. Schafer had ever heard of any of the securities

"I did not know or care what the stuff perspiration, producing a very disagreewas," said Mr. Schafer, describing the transaction. "I bid for it just as I would for an unclaimed package at an express company's auction. My last bid was $360, and rather to my surprise the lot was knocked down to me at that figure. The laugh was on me, but I took the stuff and when I had bought the New York Central I took it all to the office."

"You're a regular Mrs. Toodles," observed his partner, when he returned to his office. "You never go to an auction to buy one thing that you don't buy something one thing that you don't buy something else, too.'

Mr. Schafer offered to dispose of his bargain to several gentlemen, with no takers. Later in the day others came in, looked over the certificates supposed to be worthless, and joined in the banter at Mr. Schafer's expense. Finally a gentleman well posted in unlisted securities picked up one of the certificates with sudden interest and exclaimed:

Thousands are afflicted with diseases of the kidney and urinary organs, who suffer in silence, rather than make known their troubles. To all those afflicted with diseases of the kidney and urinary organs, who suffer in silence, rather than make known their troubles. These are shares in the Consolidated Gas company, of Baltimore—not the Commercial—and that stock is 45 bid. These $50 shares are worth about $16,000."

Then inquiries were made and the matter was talked over by Schaefer Bros. They were sure some mistake had been made was talked over by Schaefer Bros. Board.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 20.—Advices from Forest City say that A. M. Neely, the negro whose quarrel resulted in Saturday's riot, in which three men were killed, was killed by a mob early Sunday morning. Neely, his father and brother, took refuge in the Advertiser building. Every effort was made to get Neely, but they proved unsuccessful, as the negroes were well barricaded. Sunday morning Acting Sheriff Lard nersuaded old many Neely and his bleen a whose prescriptions failed to relieve me. I became alarmed, and at the suggestion of a friend purchased a bottle of Acker's English Remedy for coughs, and after taking it according to directions was completely cured. I therefore cheerfully recommend it.

I had a racking cough and initiamed throat and bought a bottle of Acker's English Remedy upon the recommendation of a friend, and was entirely cared by it. I consider it a never failing remedy for a cough.
